

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Newly renovated Arts and Innovation Center expands staff with key hire

Board of Directors of JuxtaHub Names Ryan Hill as Chief Program Officer

EMMAUS, PA -- Ryan Hill will begin his tenure with JuxtaHub on April 28, 2025. He brings over 17 years of experience overseeing various programs, events, and productions as a Senior Director of Programming at ArtsQuest and the Director of Marketing, Publicity with the Civic Theatre in Allentown, and an independent producer. Ryan holds a bachelor's degree in communications from Ithaca College and is a graduate and mentor of Leadership Lehigh Valley.

"Ryan is a dynamic, mission-driven leader who knows the Lehigh Valley well, and we are excited to see how his insight and skills support and shape the programming and policies of our growing organization," says Jim Baker, President of JuxtaHub.

Hill's role at JuxtaHub will include strategic oversight of all events and educational offerings in its newly renovated space that features a state-of-the-art digital media lab offering xR tools (augmented and mixed reality), a multipurpose production studio, community ceramics studio, and physical maker space.

I am beyond excited to make magic with the dedicated group of volunteers and artists who have established JuxtaHub as a vibrant addition to the Lehigh Valley's arts scene," said Hill. "I look forward to developing events and programming to add to the long list of reasons to love life in the Lehigh Valley."

Come and see our artists, the main gallery, and creative opportunities at JuxtaHub any Tuesday from 6:00pm to 8:00pm at 375 South 10th Street, Emmaus, PA 18049.

###

Mission: JuxtaHub seeks to enrich the community by connecting people through creative experiences.

Vision: A hub for an inclusive cross-generational arts community, fostering collaboration through the visual, performing, digital and culinary arts, and fueling a thriving creative economy.